The Light That Never Fails

The Angle Lamp

ALSO CARRY A GOOD STOCK OF HANGING, STAND AND HAND LAMPS.

Another Large Shipment of Angle Lamps.

"THE ANGLE LAMP"

THE LIGHT THAT NEVER FAILS. It seems almost incredible that any lamp could be good enough to take the place of electricity on even terms, yet such is the case with the ANGLE LAMP. All over the Islands people are throwing away their old lamps and replacing them with this lamp, not merely because it costs about one-tenth as much to maintain (cost is no object to some people) but, beside being infinitely cheaper, it is more brilliant and more reliable in the bargain. It is a revelation to every one who uses it, and simply demonstrates that the old-fashioned lamp was a barbarous contrivance. THE ANGLE LAMP never smokes, smells or gives any trouble. It is lighted and extinguished as easily as gas, and is the ideal light for every standpoint. We carry these lamps from $2.50 up.

BUT THE END IS NOT AS YET

The nearness of the end proved no damper on the ardent spirits of the Independent Home Rulers. The Republicans were there in force but without bag and baggage, taking no part in the troubles except to vote when called upon.

Concurrent Resolution 5 was permanently disposed of. The resolution relating to the reorganization of the Judiciary Department. On the advice of the Judiciary Committee, the matter was indefinitely postponed.

Senate bill 51, relating to the sale of petroleum, passed third reading. A Senate bill relating to the punishing of receivers of stolen goods, passed third reading.

Senate bill 30, providing for the Lahainaluna Seminary, passed third reading.

Senate bill 77, relating to the adulteration of food, passed third reading.

The Star came in for a share of legislative abuse, owing to an article that had appeared, headed: "Passing of the Simians." Emmeloth asked that the man behind the quill be remembered when it came to fixing the salary of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Verily, "If the glove fits, let it be worn."

A Senate concurrent resolution was read, asking the Governor in the name of "truth and decency," to prolong the session so that he might prove the charges of bribery made by him.

Robertson branded the whole affair as a feeble bluff to gain an extension of the session, stating that constant charges of bribery had been made but had all fizzled out in smoke.

The sergeant-at-arms now started for the Senate to procure the report relative to the resolution, a recess being taken until he should return.

A motion to adjourn was lost. When the House reconvened but two Republicans remained.

The sergeant stated that he had secured no report.

The resolution was then adopted, and after some trouble, the House took a recess until 8 o'clock.

"Kill time" was the watchword at the evening session last night. The Governor had informed the House that he would work on the bills and report on them as soon as he finished his deliberations. He had also stated that he would reply to the Legislature's questions in regard to the bribery matter.

About 10:45, just as the Representatives were losing patience, a message was received from Secretary Cooper, stating that several acts had been signed.

They were Act 16, fixing the Territorial Seal; Act 18, repealing certain obsolete laws; Act 19, amending Section 30, Chapter 57 of the Session Laws of 1898, and Act 20, fixing a tax on incomes. The last named Act made Dickey think that two months had not been spent entirely in vain.

In the meantime, the House made an attempt to while away the time. Some one suggested that they take up the order of the day and, as no better plan for killing time presented itself, they set down to work.

A bill compelling the local hack drivers to speak English and Hawaiian, came up for third reading but the Speaker split even on the vote after the House split even on the vote after the Speaker had cast his vote. As the score was 12-12 the bill was practically killed.

House bill 103, regulating sanitary plumbing, was also killed on third reading.

Makinal as chairman of the Committee on Accounts, now created a disturbance by reporting the expenditures of the present Legislature up to date.

Robertson stated that the present Legislature had spent twice as much as the sessions of 1898 had made away with, while they had sat only one-half as long.

Compliments now flew thick and fast across the room but Cooper's message coming in at that moment, served as oil to the troubled waters.

A recess of fifteen minutes was declared and, after the House reconvened, came the surprise of the evening.

Beckley introduced a resolution impugning President McKinley to oust Governor Dole. The resolution was carried. Ayes—Ahuli, Beckley, Emmeluth, Haehoe, Hihio, Kanuwai, Kanoho, Kawahoa, Kekaula, Mahoe, Makinal, Makekau, Mossman, Nallima, Paole and Prendergast—15.

Noes—Aylett, Dickey, Ewaliko, Kekeli, Kelikoa, Robertson and Wilcox—7.

Robertson then made a motion to adjourn sine die but it was declared out of order without the consent of the Senate. Monarrat then wanted to adjourn until February 20, 1903, but the House finally adjourned until 9 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Among the departures in the Kinau for Hilo and way ports yesterday were the following: Miss Rickard, M. D. Monarrat, T. E. Hobbs, Mrs. E. M. Loebenstein, T. R. Keyworth, H. B. Gehr, Mrs. E. S. Gill, Sheriff Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wall, Dr. Raymond, Capt. H. E. Soule and Mrs. A. Clark.
